Rose Ndulu Ndolo

Senior Nutrition Programmes Advisor, World
Vision UK

Rose Ndulu Ndolo is currently a Senior Nutrition Programme Adviser with World Vision UK. In her role, she provides technical support to country programmes to design and implement multi-sector maternal and child nutrition programmes across health, agriculture, livelihoods, education, and WASH sectors. Ms. Ndolo has over 16 years' experience in nutrition programming in development and emergency contexts. Her expertise spans stable rural contexts, fragile refugee and internally displaced populations, as well as responding to drought and other emergencies – primarily focused on the needs of vulnerable women and children. Ms. Ndolo holds a BSc in Food, Nutrition and Dietetics from Kenyatta University, Kenya and an MSc in Organizational Development from United States International University Africa.
